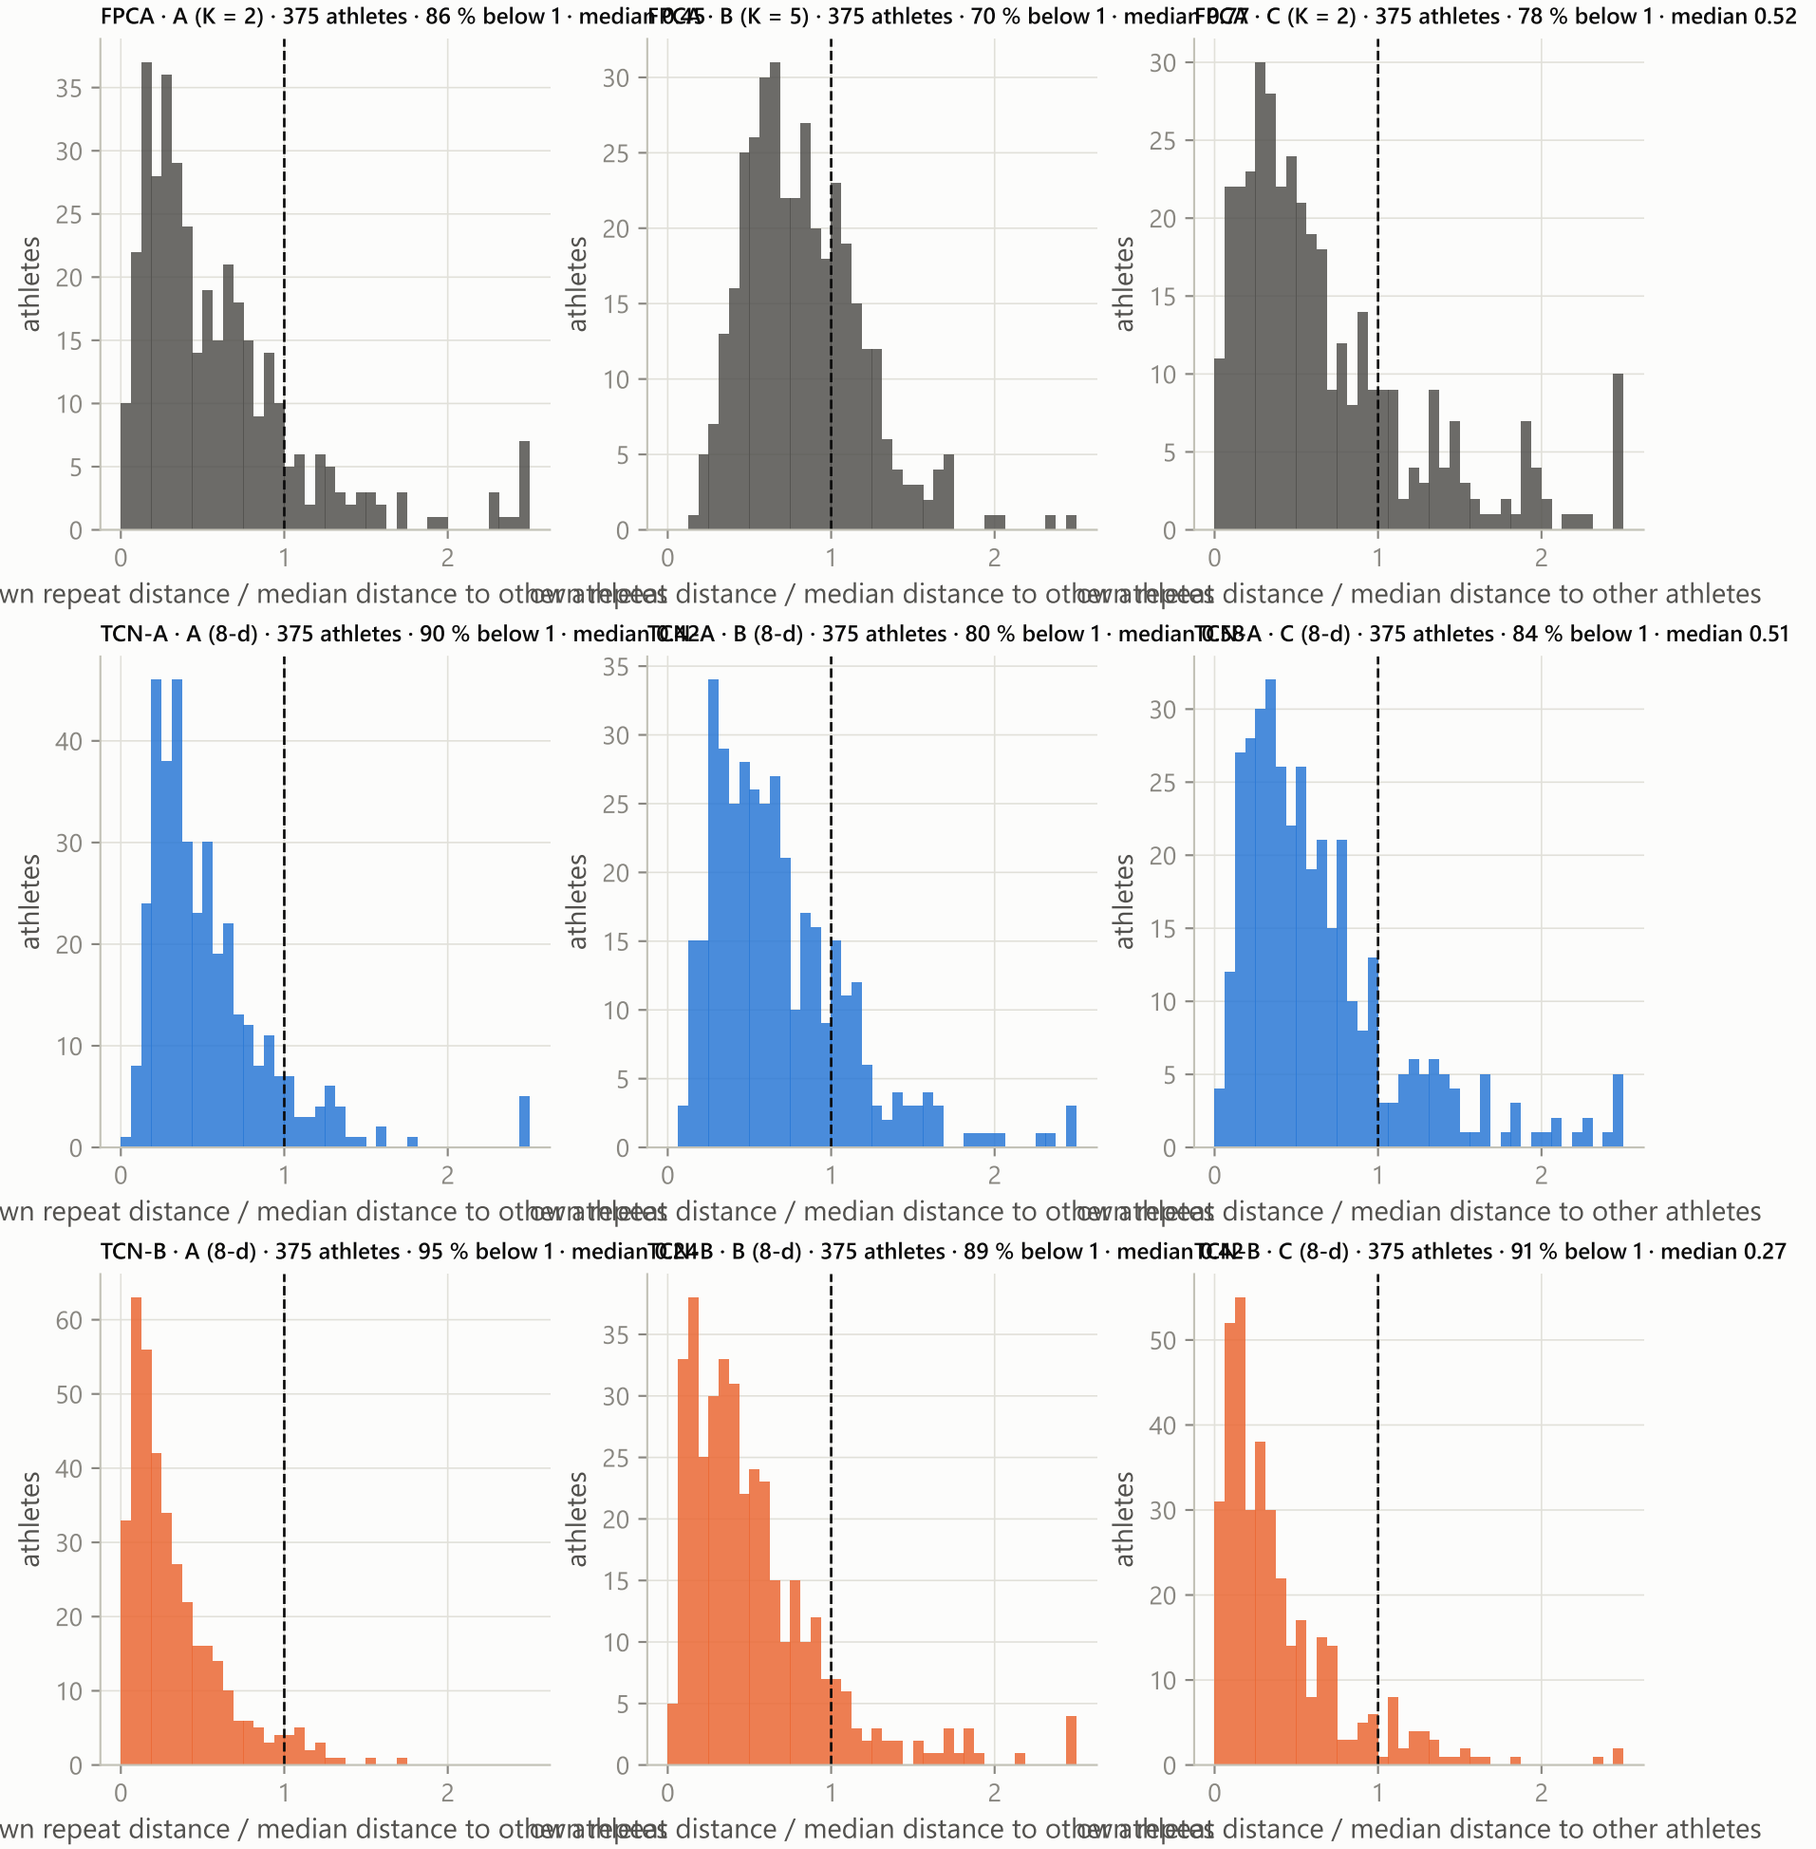
Same-athlete against different-athlete distances



Unit: held-out athlete with two embedded attempts. x = distance between the athlete's two attempts divided by the median distance from his attempt to the other attempt of the athletes of his position in the same fold (1 = his own repeat is as far as a typical other athlete; values above 2.5 are drawn at 2.5). Space: standardised. Distances are never compared between folds.