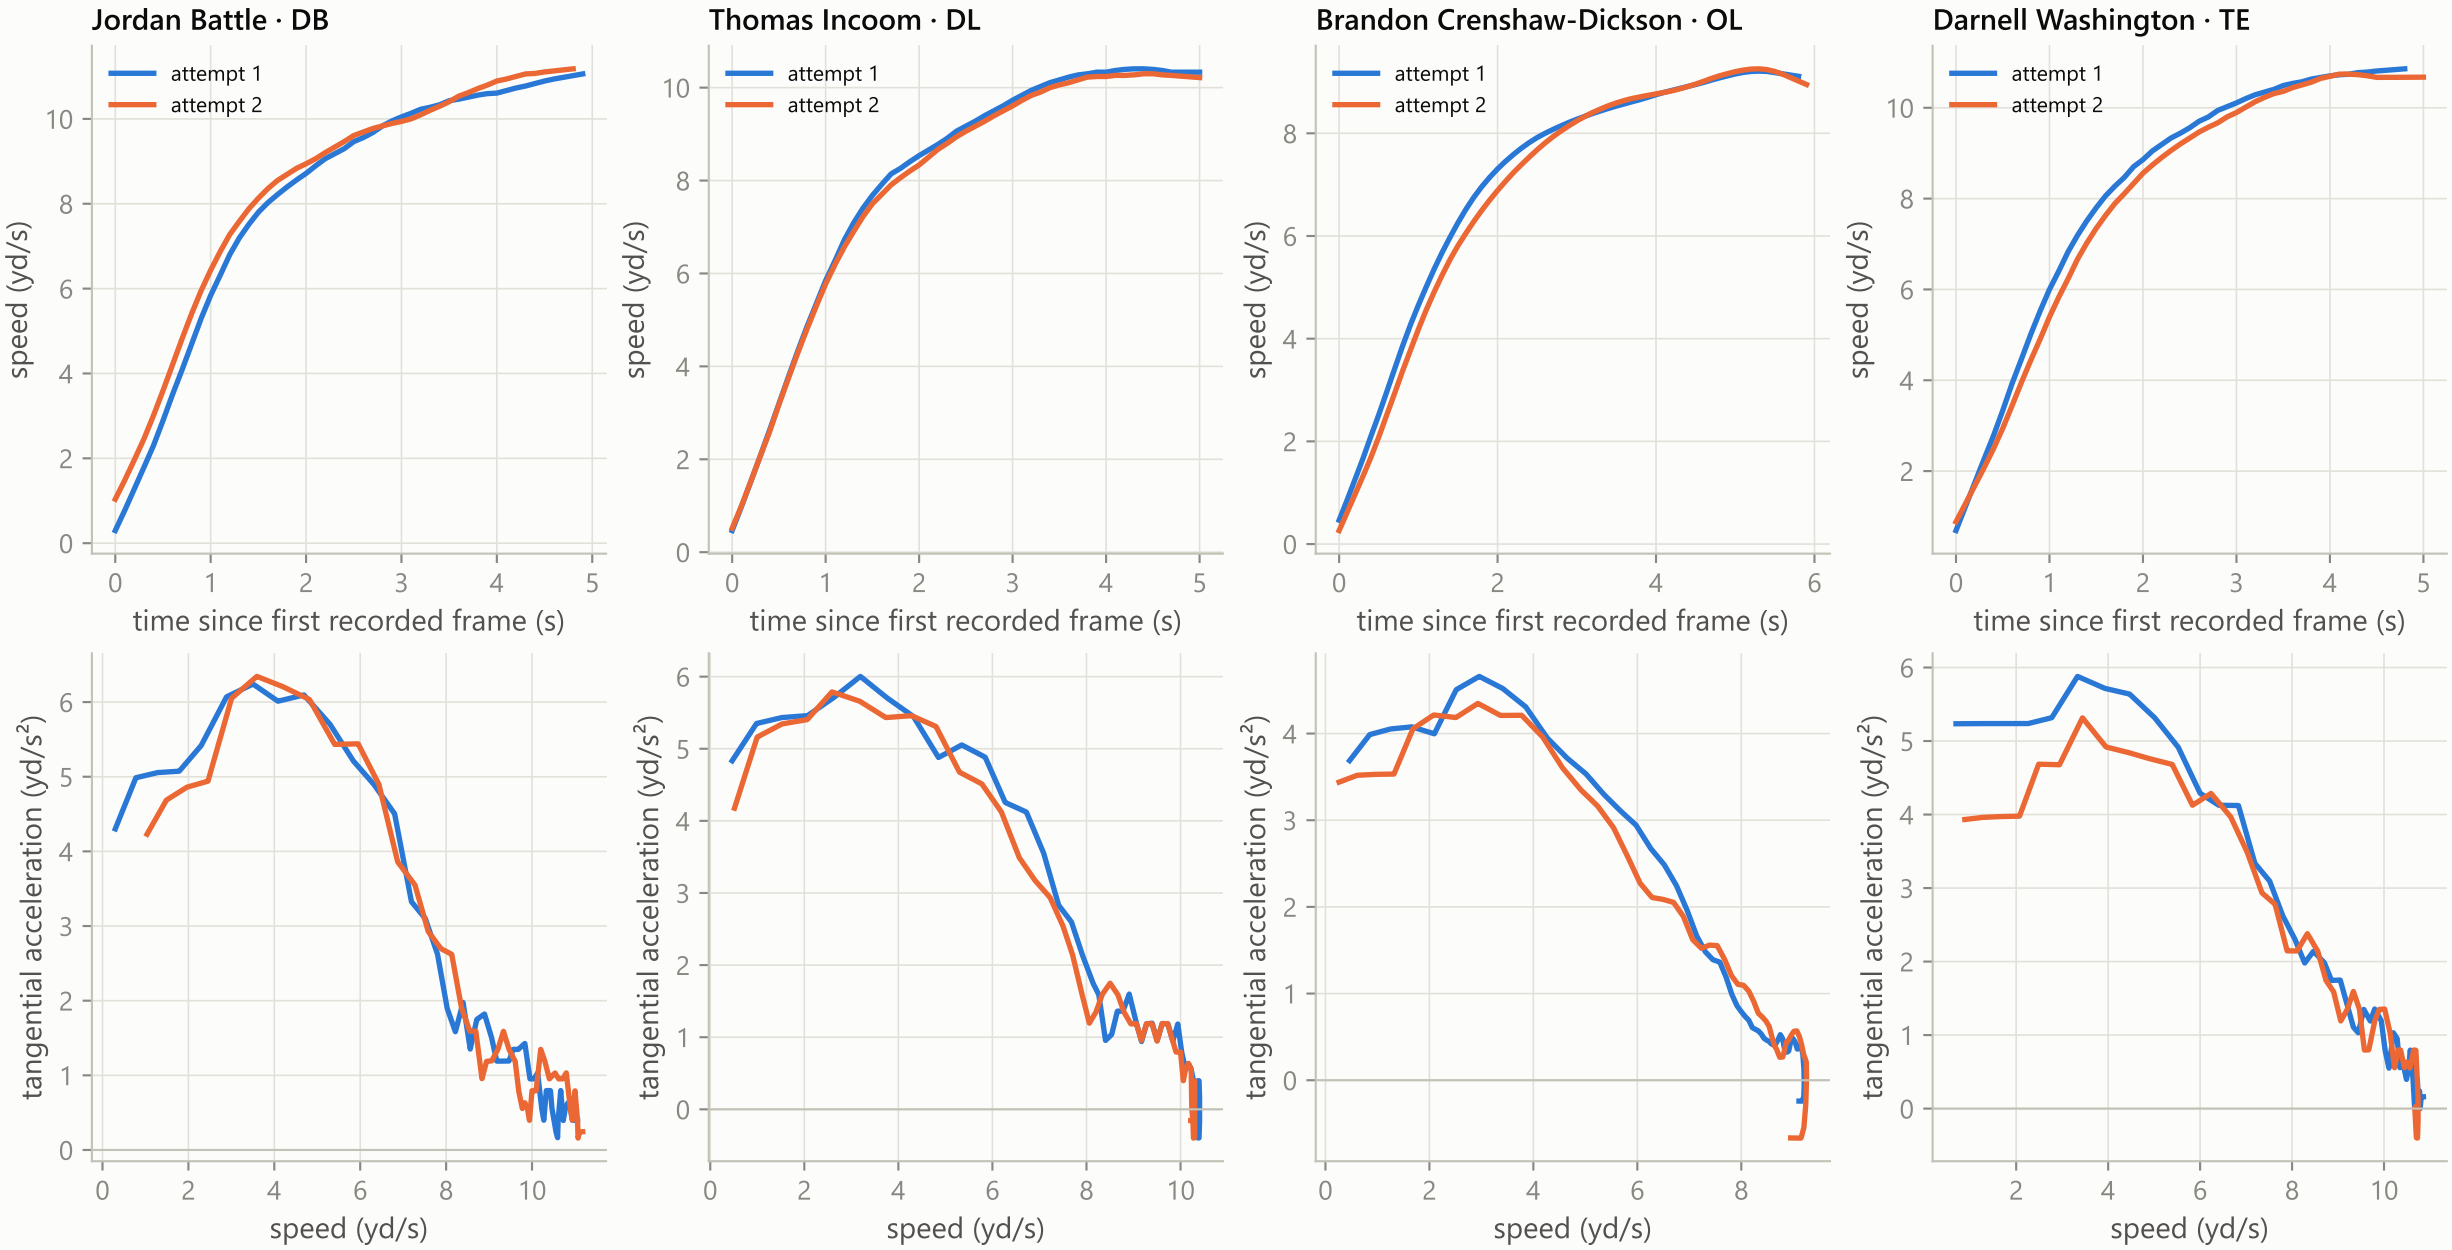
Do an athlete's attempts look alike?



Unit: frame; one column per athlete, one line per attempt. Top: the clock starts at the first RECORDED frame, so two attempts of an athlete can be shifted against each other. Bottom: acceleration at a given speed does not depend on where the recording starts. Example role: descriptive.