
Δ athlete-mean squared error of the NFL function (reference − model; positive = model better) on identical athletes; controls shuffle the Combine curves within position or add random scores.