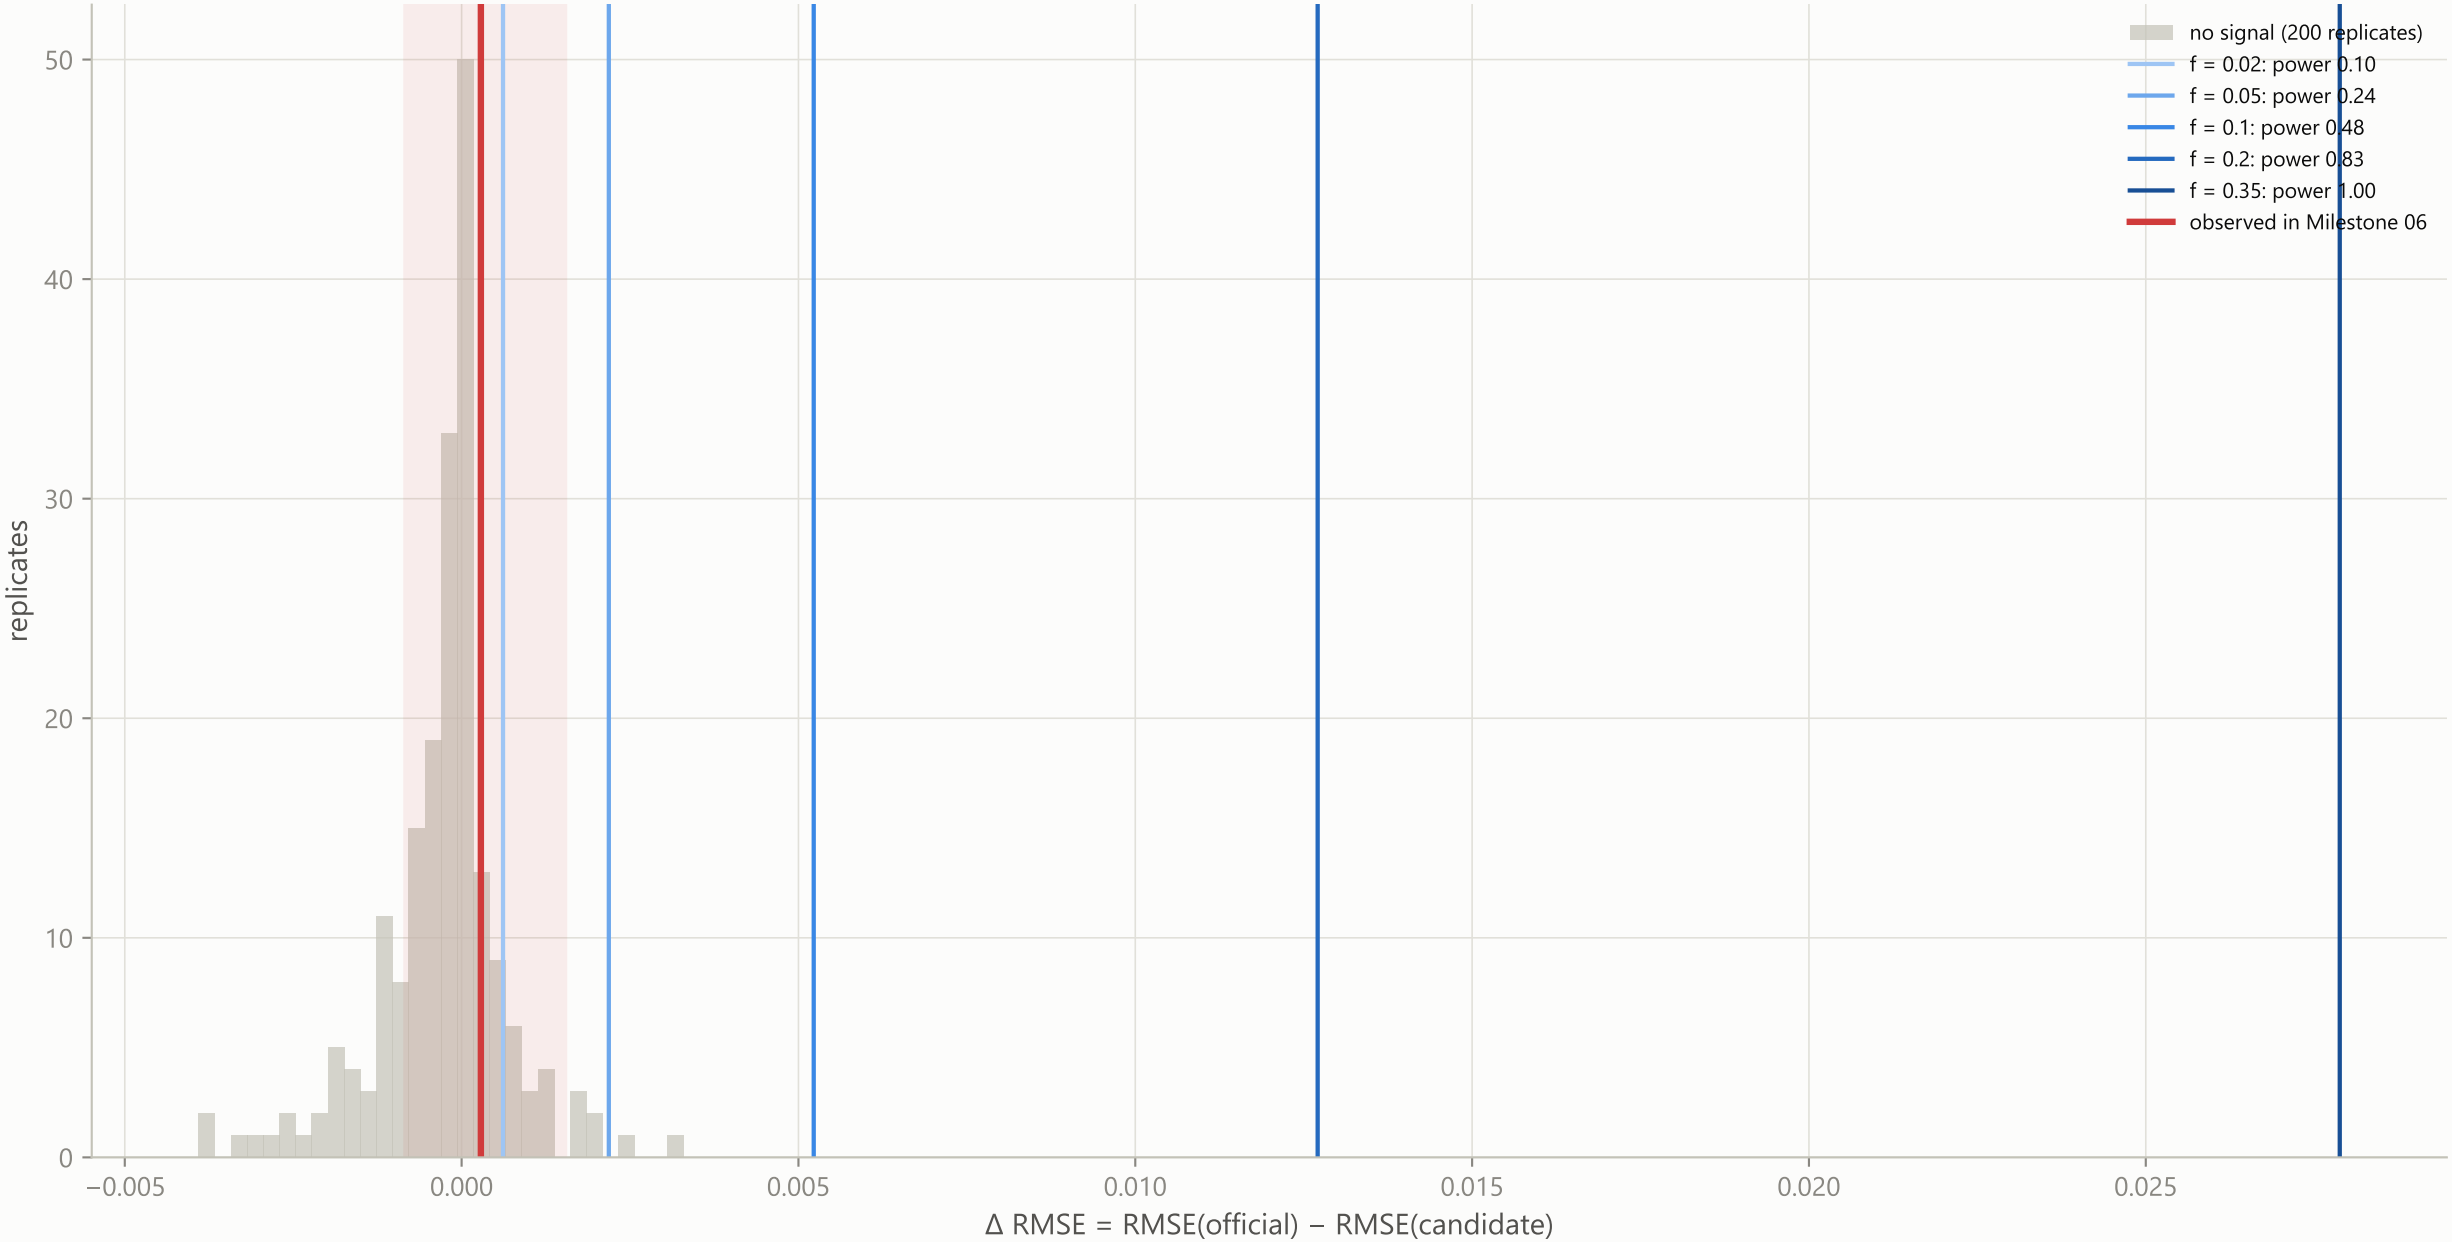
The observed Milestone 06 gain against detectable effects



M5. Grey: distribution of the paired gain when nothing is planted. Blue lines: mean gain recovered for each planted effect, with its detection rate. Red: the real Milestone 06 gain and its interval. Where the red line sits among the blue lines says which effects the study could and could not have distinguished from none.