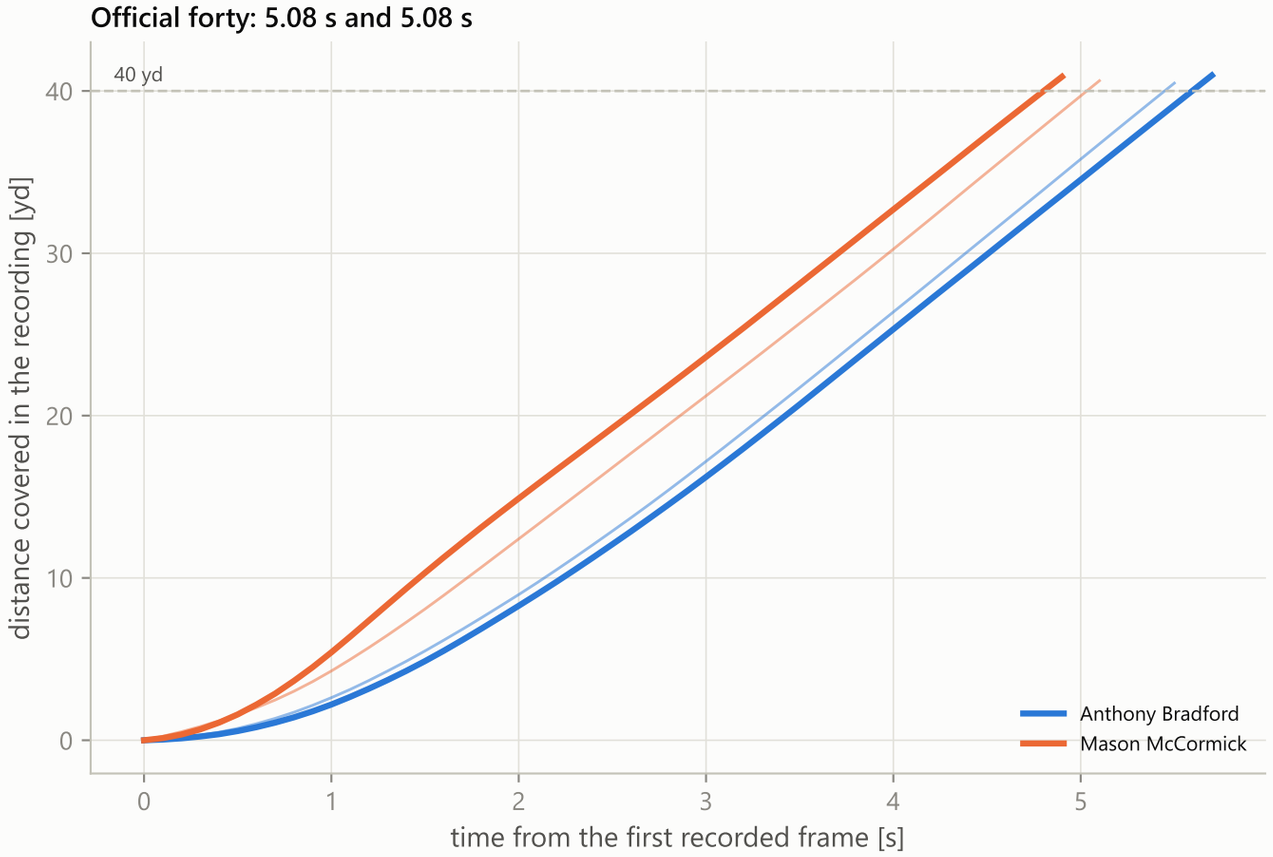
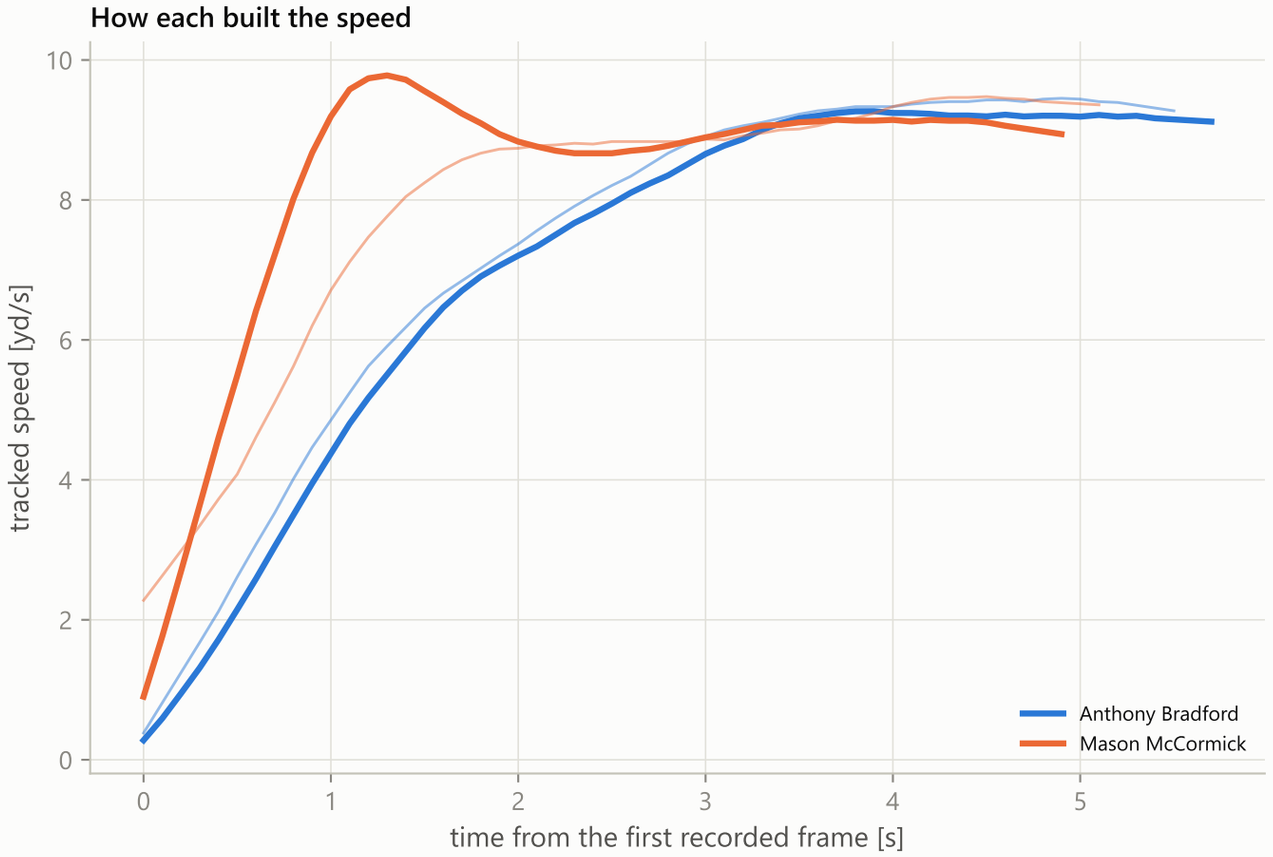
Same forty, different curve — Anthony Bradford and Mason McCormick (OL)





Recorded 10 Hz frames only; a recording can start after the first movement or end before 40 yd, so the official time — not the recorded curve — is the timed result. The same final time can be reached through different speed curves.