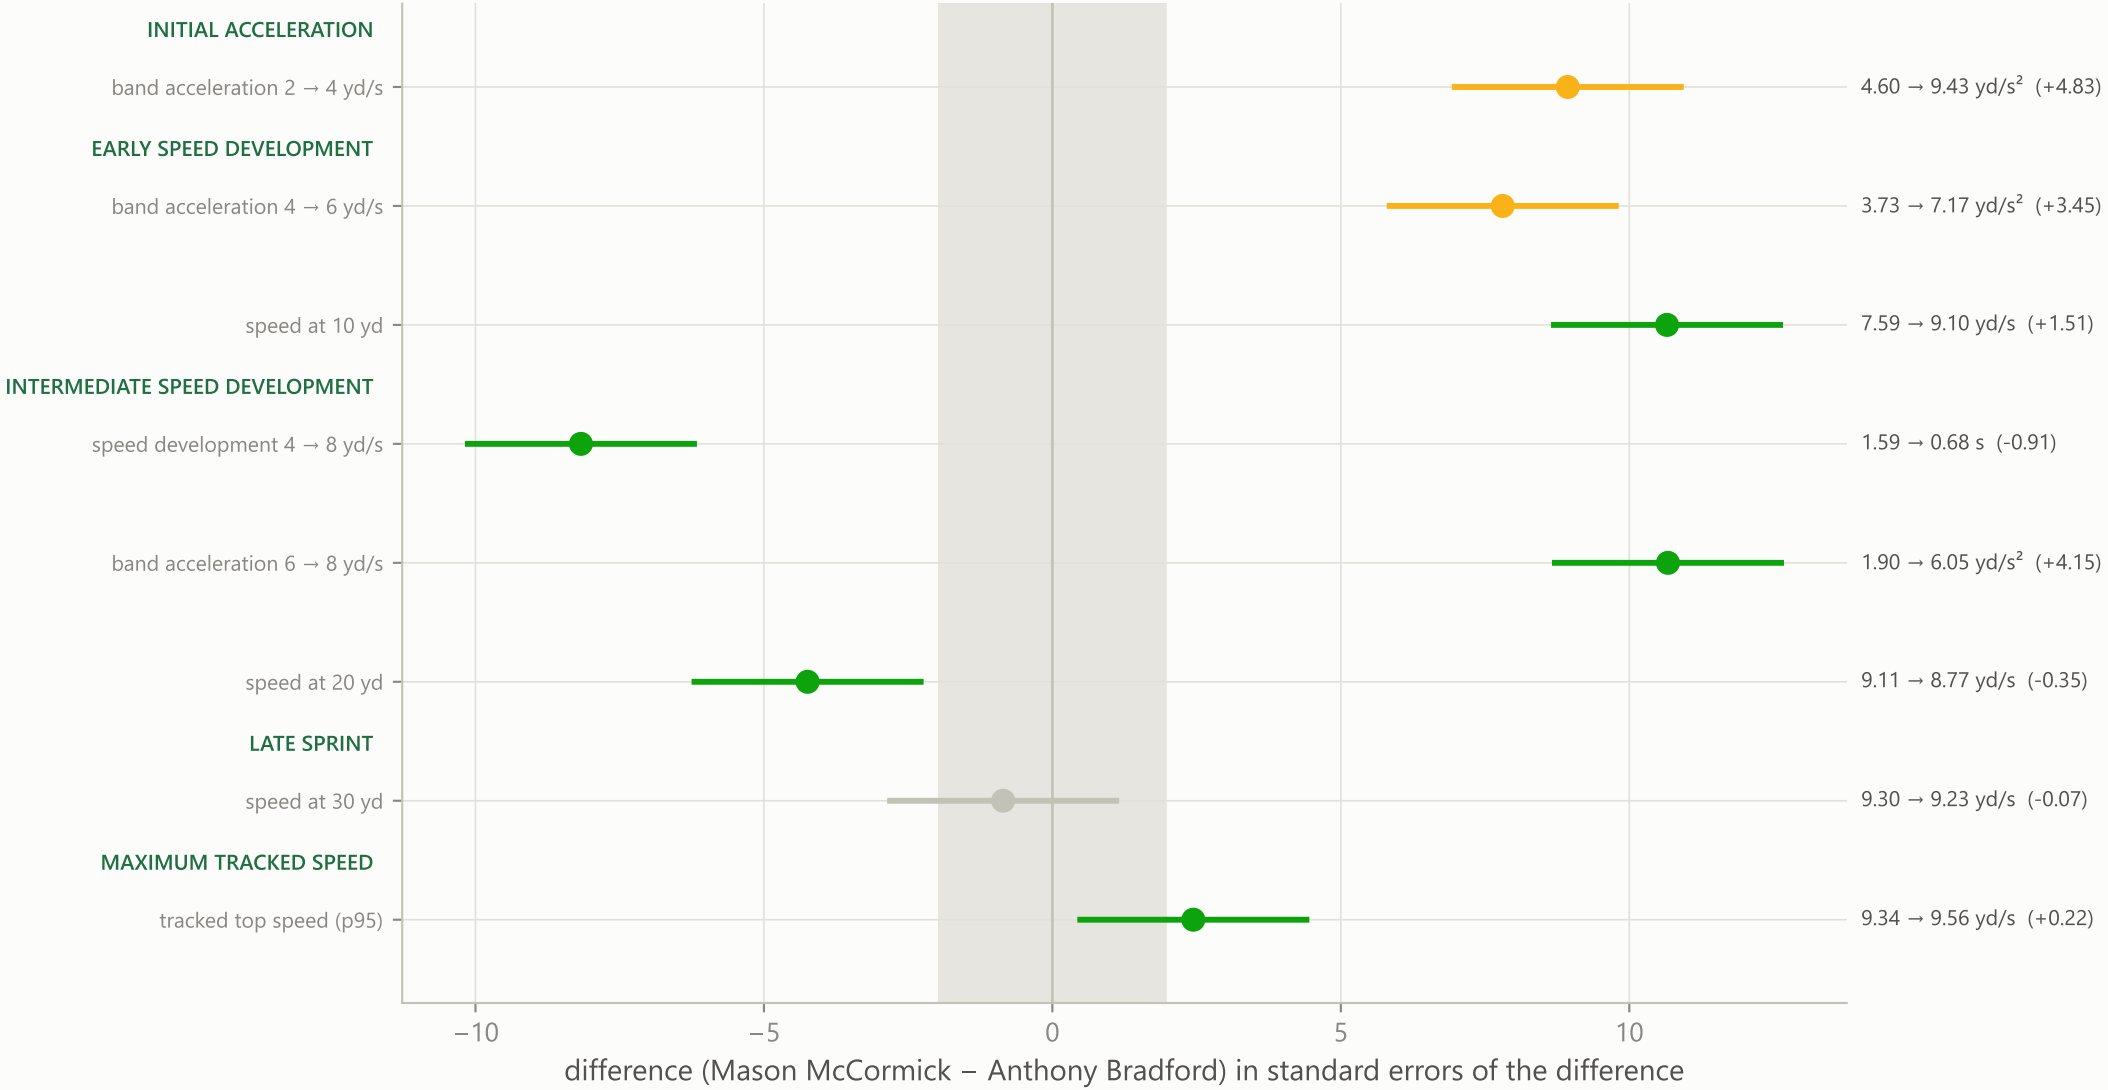
Where the sprints differ — phase by phase (Anthony Bradford vs Mason McCormick)



Grey band = inside ±1.96 standard errors (repeat-attempt variation of both athletes): not a difference. Green = distinguishable; amber = feature not repeatable enough to describe an athlete. Right: value of A → value of B (difference, native units). No phase is filled from another.