
Pooled models scored inside each subgroup (no subgroup-specific model). A subgroup without a whisker has too few athletes for an interval. Differences between subgroups are mostly estimation noise unless the heterogeneity test says otherwise; a subgroup-only gain needs replication.